

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE
DEPARTMENT OF VETERINARY MEDICINE
THE QUEEN'S VETERINARY SCHOOL HOSPITAL

SENIOR CLINICAL TRAINING SCHOLARSHIP ANATOMIC PATHOLOGY

SCHOLARSHIP AWARD £23,600.00 Year One

The Scholarship is available from 1 December 2020, for one year in the first instance, renewable for periods of one year up to a total of three years. It is subject to an initial monitoring period of six months, and to review on an annual basis.

The Scholarship provides an outstanding opportunity to study for a postgraduate qualification, and it is expected that the Scholar will work towards the diploma exams of the European College of Veterinary Pathologists or the American College of Veterinary Pathologists, with the opportunity to additionally sit the Fellowship exams of the Royal College of Pathologists.

You will be trained in diagnostic gross pathology and histopathology of all common domestic species with some additional exposure to zoo and wildlife animal species and laboratory animals; will participate in the small-group teaching of veterinary students; and will undertake a research project. At the end of the Scholarship period the Scholar would be eligible to sit the exams of the European College of Veterinary Pathologists (ECVP), American College of Veterinary Pathologists (ACVP), and the Royal College of Pathologists.

Applicants must be a Member of the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons, or hold a veterinary degree qualifying them for membership. In order to comply with ECVP trainee registration requirements, the applicant must have worked or undergone training as a veterinarian in a field relevant to veterinary pathology for at least one year subsequent to graduation from veterinary school. A minimum of 12 months' experience of diagnostic pathology is desirable.

A SCTS application form (SCTS1) and information pack can be downloaded from the following website: <https://www.vet.cam.ac.uk/job>

Applicants should supply a completed SCTS Application Form (SCTS1), Curriculum Vitae and Covering Letter giving reasons for wishing to undertake the SCTS in the Department of Veterinary Medicine, University of Cambridge.

Applications should be submitted via e-mail to vetmed@hermes.cam.ac.uk with the above documents as one attachment, by the closing date stated.

Closing date: 19 November 2020

Interview date: 2 December 2020
