Senior Clinician/Clinician in Anatomic Pathology
Vacancy Ref: 189576
Salary: Grade 8/9, £50,253 - £58,225/£59,966 - £67,468 per annum

The University of Glasgow's School of Biodiversity, One Health & Veterinary Medicine is seeking to appoint a Senior Clinician/Clinician in Anatomic Pathology. You will deliver an efficient and effective diagnostic pathology service, enhance and develop undergraduate teaching and postgraduate training and undertake high quality clinical research within this service. You will contribute to the College of Medical, Veterinary & Life Sciences' objectives relevant to national and international excellence in clinical service, teaching and research.

The School has an international reputation in teaching, clinical services and research and is accredited by the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons (RCVS), the European Association of Establishments of Veterinary Education (EAEVE) and the American Veterinary Medical Association (AVMA). You will carry out associated tasks as requested by the Head of Division and Head of School to maintain and further the School/College objectives and reputation.

This post is full time and open ended. The role will be appointed at Grade 8 or 9, depending upon qualifications and experience of the successful candidate.
